

ROYAL FOWEY YACHT CLUB JUNE NEWSLETTER 2017

Can we really believe that Midsummer's Day is on the calendar this month? No, I thought not. Particularly since your correspondent has just come off the water chilled to the bone by fierce hailstorms. But we live in hope of balmy summer days with just enough wind to make the sailing interesting, and not so much that it blows the cutlery off the Club terrace, followed by long, lazy evenings scented by the barbeque, with something soothing yet stimulating in a glass. We shall see.

We can report that Troy racing started on schedule, providing the usual splendid spectacle of skill, cunning, seamanship, language, and (maybe?) luck, and the Bristol Channel Pilot Cutters parade of sail on May 19th – somewhat obscured by the previously-mentioned hailstorms.

As part of the Fowey Festival, the Club was very pleased in May once again to host the Fowey Festival café and bookshop, and to give many visitors and friends the opportunity to see the Club and enjoy our lovely location on the waterfront.

On 13th May, our valiant Honorary Secretary, Anne Chitty, together with fellow-members Sarah Fitzgerald, Susie Leafe, and Moyra Marshall, completed the London Moonwalk overnight Marathon in aid of breast cancer charities. They send thanks to all who supported them. We congratulate the intrepid four.
