

ROYAL FOWEY YACHT CLUB

June (so soon?) and sailing is the heart of the Club this month. Everyone that wants to be is on the water. All classes are racing. On Saturday afternoons and Wednesday evenings, the Club terrace is the perfect spot from which to watch.

- For those for whom two races a week is not enough, this month will see extra events:
 - Fowey Rivers: Fowey River Gallery Series on Friday evenings. Week 1 Friday 22nd, Week 2 Friday 29th June. Our thanks to sponsors Fowey River Gallery for their generous support of these spectator-friendly events.
 - Troy Championships: Saturday 30th June – Sunday 1st July.
- For the heavy brigade, we have:
 - Cornwall Offshore Group Series and Plymouth Inshore Pilot Sailing: Saturday 2nd – Sunday 3rd June.
- For the footloose and fancy-free, we have:
 - Fowey Goes Foreign: Cruise to L'Aber Wrac'h in Brittany, a convivial way to sail further afield, doing so in company to ease the challenges of sailing across the Channel: Thursday 21st – Sunday 24th. Contact the Club office if you would like to take part.
- And for the sedentary spectator:
 - Visit of Westerley Nationals.

Meanwhile, for those sadly left ashore, the social programme includes:

- Friday 1st June: Book Club, The Universe Versus Alex Woods, by Gavin Extence.
- Saturday 9th: Men's Breakfast.
- Saturday 9th: Ladies' Dinner. Guest speaker Susie Leafe on Life In The Media. Tickets from the Club office.
- Tuesday 26th: Fowey Valley Music, in the J Room.
- Every Thursday: Bridge Club, 14.00, for all, of whatever standard.
- Every Friday: Club Welcome Hour, 18.00 – 19.30, a sociable and friendly start to the weekend.

With all this going on, we hope there will be some fine photographs for the Club's 2019 calendar. If you have not already sent in your submissions, please do so as soon possible.
