

ROYAL FOWEY YACHT CLUB SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER 2017

THANK YOU!

Starting point this month is a huge “Thank You” to all who made the Regatta this year such a splendidly enjoyable occasion. There are so many that the office would cut me off (and I’m suffering enough already from the after-effects of a great week) if I tried to name them all, but they include, the Regatta Committee, the Carnival participants, the Town Band (surely not - oh, well, OK), the Traders, the Gallants, the Yacht Club, the Harbour Commission, the Rugby Club, the Street Cleaners, POFROC, the Working Boat crews, the Safety Boat crews, the Race Officers, the RNLI, the Bucket-Banging collectors, the Entertainers, the Caterers, the Sponsors, all the Volunteers on and off the water. You know who you are, and we thank you.

It was a shame about the weather on the Monday and Wednesday nights, the very evenings when it really needed to be fine, but even through that, spirits remained high as the streets later echoed to the music (?) of the Town Band and the lilt of the Working Boat crews’ singing drifting from open windows. Well done, all.

Assuming we have all recovered sufficiently, something like normal Club life now resumes.

Club Open Meeting.

There was a packed clubhouse for the open meeting on 11th August, at which the ambitious plans for next winter’s major improvements to the building were presented. There was very strong support for these proposals, and much appreciation for the imaginative arrangements to keep the usual winter social and other activities running despite the unavoidable temporary closure of the clubhouse whilst the work is being done

PHOTOGRAPHS FOR THE CLUB CALENDAR 2018

All submissions will be on display in the Clubhouse from the Welcome Hour on Friday 8th September until Sunday 10th September. Members will be asked to vote on which are the best photos to be included in the calendar. The deadline for entries was 31st August but you can now start sending in your photographs for the 2019 Calendar. Please send them direct to our doughty organisers, Carol Hunt (carol@watersfoot.com) and/or Lizzie Morgan (lizziemorgan618@gmail.com). Get clicking!

THE NEXT BOOK CLUB TAKES PLACE ON FRIDAY OCTOBER 6TH
